Some Suggested Locations for Lower North Shore Ceremonies

If you choose an outdoor location you MUST have an alternative venue in case of bad weather

- Cremorne Point – anywhere along the point itself from the ferry wharf to the lighthouse. This part at the very tip of the peninsular is called Robertsons Pt. The only shelter is the wharf itself.
- McMahon's Point at the end of Blue's Point Road. If the weather isn't good you could choose a place near the wharf as there is shelter there for a smallish wedding party.
- Clark Park, Watt Park or Quiberie Park are all along the Lavender Bay foreshore. Both ceremony and reception could be in a small Indian restaurant right next to Clark Park with a picture window overlooking the Harbour. The Kirribilli Club also overlooks Clark Park.
- Milson Park, MacDougall and Hipwood Streets, Milsons Point (no shelter).
- Kurraba Point Reserve, Neutral Bay. Very quiet spot and one of my favourites, but no shelter.
- Copes Lookout, Capt Henry Waterhouse Reserve & Dr Mary Booth Lookout near Jeffrey Street Wharf, Kirribilli or anywhere along the waterfront from the wharf towards Milsons Point. There is shelter on the actual wharf and also two small sandstone buildings (room for maybe 10 people) on the path from the wharf towards the Opera House.

Below are some other places where the ceremony and reception could be held at the same venue:
